U.S. immigration regulations state that if you are coming to the U.S. to study full-time, you should do so with a F1 student visa. In order to get a student visa, you will need to be issued an I-20 Certificate of Eligibility from AMDA. The Certificate of Eligibility for Nonimmigrant (F-1) Student Status is better known as “the I-20.” This 3-page form is issued by AMDA and other schools that are authorized by the Student & Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP) to accept international students. You will need the I-20 in order to apply for a student visa interview at the U.S. Embassy in your home country, where they will decide whether to issue you an F-1 visa (except citizens of Canada and Bermuda, who do not need to apply for a F1 visa but do need the I 20 certificate.)

Complete this application if you are:
• Outside the U.S.
• Currently in the U.S., but will be returning to your home country to apply for a F1 visa before attending AMDA

Contact us if you are:
• Currently in the U.S. in F1 student status and attending another school
• In the U.S. in another visa status and need to change immigration status
• In another visa status that allows for full-time study

I-20 Application required documents:
1. Application for the Form I-20 – complete and return (2 pages)
2. Sponsor’s Affidavit of Support: if financially responsible for the student’s tuition and living expenses, each sponsor/parent must complete and sign an Affidavit of Support.
3. Financial Documents - each signed Sponsor’s Affidavit of Support must be accompanied by financial documents that show proof of funds for the first two semesters and evidence of where future years will come from. Following is a list of generally acceptable supporting documents:
a. Bank statements
b. A letter indicating current account balance(s) signed by a bank officer. It must be on official letterhead, with bank seal.
c. A letter or statement from brokerage houses or other financial institutions that show the value of cash or other liquid assets held by the parent or sponsor.
d. A letter or statement of earnings from the parent(s)’ or sponsor(s)’ employer with recent pay stubs, if available. This must be on official letterhead, signed and dated by the appropriate employer representative, such as Human Resources or Payroll.
e. A letter from the parents’ or other sponsor(s)’ attorney and/or accountant.
f. Proof of loan approval from your loan institution
NOTE: Documents must be in English; otherwise, a certified translation must also be provided.
4. Copy of applicants passport

APPLYING FOR THE U.S. VISA

AFTER YOU HAVE SUBMITTED YOUR COMPLETE I-20 APPLICATION

We will process and send out your I-20 within one week (provided you have been officially accepted and submitted the required first payment).

We will send you an email to confirm the I-20 has been sent and this email will include the SEVIS ID # and instructions on how to pay the SEVIS I-901 fee. This is a US government fee that must be paid for the I-20 certificate (please note this is different from the visa application processing fee). Be sure to pay the SEVIS I-901 fee at least 3 days before the visa interview date (or entering the US for citizens of Canada and Bermuda).

After receiving the I-20 from AMDA

1. Pay the SEVIS I-901 fee.
2. Have color passport photos taken; you will need at least one for the visa application. Read the photo requirements on https://travel.state.gov.
3. Apply for a multiple-entry, F-1 Student visa. Information and a link to the online DS-160 visa application are at https://travel.state.gov.
4. Remember that completing the DS-160 application is only the first step. Consult instructions on the web site of the embassy or consulate where you intend to apply, as each office’s instructions may vary.
5. After completing the DS-160 application:
   » Print and keep the DS-160 barcode page (no need to print entire application).
   » Schedule a visa interview appointment in your country of residence. Note that wait times for interview appointments vary by location, season, and visa category.
   » Pay the visa application processing fee, if required to do so before the interview AND KEEP THE RECEIPT of payment.
6. Gather documents for the visa interview:
   » Your passport, valid for at least 6 months beyond your date of travel
   » Your Form I-20 from AMDA
   » Your SEVIS I-901 fee receipt
   » Your Form DS-160 confirmation page (the one with the barcode)
   » The receipt of payment for your visa processing fee, if required to pay before visa interview
   » One printed passport photo in case the photo upload with your on-line application failed » Additional documents in the event they are requested. Again, review the instructions on the web site of the embassy or consulate where you will apply.
     a. Proof of academic preparation such as transcripts/academic records and diplomas from previous schools attended
     b. Evidence of ties to your home country, such as property, family business, etc. This is very important for a successful visa application
     c. Proof of how you will pay all educational, living and travel costs (i.e., the financial evidence packet you had sent to AMDA when applying for the Form I-20)
     d. Your English language proficiency score report (Cambridge, ELASH, IELTS, TOEFL)
     e. AMDA Acceptance letter

VISA INTERVIEW OUTCOMES

Please notify the appropriate International Student Office your visa appointment date and after visa appointment!
• NY Students: InternationalNY@amda.edu • LA Students: InternationalLA@amda.edu

If your visa is approved - You may get the visa stamp immediately or they may hold your passport and send it to you several days later.
As soon as you get the visa, review it for accuracy. Make sure it is the correct visa (F1) and that your name is spelled properly. Occasionally they will make errors, so it’s important to check and have them corrected before you travel.

Please scan and email a copy of your visa to the appropriate International Student Affairs Office:

If your visa is denied - Request something in writing giving the reason for denial and contact the appropriate AMDA International Student Affairs Office right away for advice. The vast majority of students are successful in obtaining a visa.

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

About F-1 visa status:
- You can arrive up to 30 days before the program start date and must depart within 60 days after the program end date (unless you are transferring to another AMDA campus, another school or applying for Post-Completion Optional Practical Training – see below).
- After your first semester on campus you will be eligible to apply for on-campus employment and upon completion or a conservatory or degree program, you may be eligible to apply for Post-Completion Optional Practical Training (OPT), which gives you a work permit for up to 12 months to work in jobs related to your field of study.
- You may bring a spouse or child, who would apply for an F-2 visa. You will need to provide additional proof of funds for dependents. Please alert us if you are bringing dependents and include a copy of each dependents passport.
- You are responsible to stay in good status as an F-1 student in order to remain in the U.S. legally. You must follow the attendance policy and the rules for extending your studies or transferring to another school.

CAUTION
- DO NOT enter the U.S. using a B-1, B-2 or B-1/B2 visa or using ESTA. If you enter the US as a tourist you will have to apply to change your immigration status to F1 student. This process is costly and takes a long time (over a year) during which you cannot study. Do not listen to those who say it’s easier to enter the U.S. as a tourist and change your status later. IT IS NOT TRUE.
- DO NOT send originals of documents to AMDA. Send only PHOTOCOPIES of all necessary documents. You will need the original documents when you have your visa interview at the U.S. embassy or consulate.
- At the port of entry into the U.S., be ready to present to the Custom’s official the following:
  a. Your valid passport with the F1 student visa stamp
  b. Form I-20 from AMDA
