WELCOME TO AMDA
For the true performing artist, rehearsals don’t end when you step offstage. Your city is your classroom. Your roommates are fellow performers. You belong to a vibrant artistic community. This is the kind of immersive education you get from AMDA.

Our stages and classrooms are just the beginning. As you’re honing your craft on campus, you’re also experiencing life in two of the creative epicenters of the world — New York City and Los Angeles. You graduate one step ahead of the competition, in a city you’ve lived in for years with the connections and savvy needed to succeed in the industry.

When you attend AMDA Los Angeles, you’re in the heart of Hollywood, where films, television shows and live performances are constantly in production. On the AMDA New York campus in Manhattan’s Upper West Side, you’re surrounded by some of the most renowned performance and arts venues in the world.

As you train and live among the best, you can stage your future from a safe and nurturing home base. It’s time for your next big role — student at one of the best schools for performing artists.

Welcome to AMDA.
FOR GENERATIONS, NEW YORK CITY

has been an essential destination for artists seeking to expand their minds, broaden their talents and launch their careers. The city and its cultural foundations are as exciting now as they were when AMDA was founded here in 1964.

AMDA New York City students immerse themselves in the cultural fusions and vibrancy of America’s largest city, getting first hand exposure in the fabled performing arts scenes all around them.

The campus is located on Manhattan’s Upper West Side, with Lincoln Center, Central Park, Hudson River Greenway, Times Square and Broadway all within walking distance.

61ST STREET BUILDING

This nearly 60,000-square-foot facility is the nucleus of the New York campus. The site houses classrooms, studios, the Performing Arts Library and theatres. Amenities include lounges, a student gallery, the student store and on-site food services.

ANSONIA BUILDING

This Beaux-Arts historic landmark complex contains a black box theatre, secondary theatres, studios and private voice rooms.

PERFORMANCE THEATRES

The 61st Street and Ansonia buildings each house large black box theatres complemented by dressing rooms, costume shops, green rooms, workshops and prop storage. Additional theatres at each location provide more intimate performance spaces. All theatres feature professional lighting and sound systems.
REHEARSAL SPACES
AMDA’s performance-based curriculum requires frequent rehearsal. Classroom and performance spaces are supplemented by more than 30 rehearsal studios and 29 private voice studios. Spaces are outfitted with rehearsal essentials such as audiovisual equipment, pianos and cabaret tables and blocks. Dance studios are furnished with ballet barres and sprung flooring.

AMDA CRAFT SERVICES & AMDA KIOSK
AMDA Craft Services in the 61st Street Building offers “grab-and-go” meals and snacks. Breakfast, lunch and dinner options include sandwiches, wraps, hot meals, smoothies and other beverages. The adjacent AMDA Kiosk is a convenient source for textbooks, required supplies and gear, as well as AMDA merchandise.

PERFORMING ARTS LIBRARY
The AMDA New York Performing Arts Library offers numerous services and resources to support students, faculty and alumni, including media stations, computers, printers and copiers. The expansive collections include books, scripts, screenplays, scores, librettis, songbooks, sheet music and playbills. The audiovisual collection encompasses the breadth of performance media, disciplines and styles. Online services provide access to library catalogs, remote databases, media streaming services and digital content.

54th STREET BUILDING
Located seven blocks from the main campus, this facility houses student services, the academic department and administration.

HOUSING
Unique, affordable and just a brief walk from campus, the Stratford Arms and Amsterdam residence halls offer 24-hour security, furnished rooms, laundry facilities, common eating and lounging areas and free Wi-Fi access.

While there are a variety of alternate housing options in the areas surrounding campus, students who opt to live off-campus are responsible for their own housing. AMDA assumes no responsibility in assisting students with off-campus housing, nor does AMDA have control over third-party rent fees, which vary by location.
THE AMSTERDAM

Just a short walk from campus, the Amsterdam stands at the tree-lined intersection of West 85th and Broadway. Though the Amsterdam boasts a neoclassical exterior with keystone details and flowing columns, residents enjoy modern interiors and amenities.

The stately building is located between Central Park and the Hudson River, both mere blocks away. Students can explore the winding pathways and attractions of New York’s best-known park, the vibrant restaurants and boutiques of Hudson’s Riverside Park, and easy access to the Manhattan Waterfront Greenway, a 32-mile path around the island reserved for pedestrians and cyclists.

HOLLYWOOD’S ALLURE IS APPARENT
right from the AMDA campus. Movies and television shows film on the surrounding streets, home to the studios, stages and companies driving much of global entertainment and popular culture.

Beyond the glitz and glamour, Los Angeles boasts a rich arts culture that includes renowned performance venues and museums, a thriving theatre scene and the booming digital media industry.

AMDA Los Angeles is in the heart of Hollywood, with primary facilities located at the historic intersection of Yucca and Vine streets. The iconic Yucca Tower is surrounded by historic student residences, all steeped in the history and lore of Hollywood.

YUCCA TOWER
The historic eight-story, Art Deco tower houses classrooms, offices, studios, a costume shop, a stage combat armory, a computer lab, the AMDA Los Angeles Performing Arts Library, AMDA Café and a black box theatre.

VINE BUILDING
This five-story facility houses classrooms, laboratory theatres, studios, a film screening theatre, private voice rooms and a general education classroom. The building also features a student lounge, small café, the film production suites and the scene shop.

COSMO BUILDING
The 20,000 square-foot Cosmo performing arts facility contains the campus’ largest theatre. The facility features practice rooms, recording studios, media stations and costume and stage craft shops.
PERFORMANCE THEATRES
The AMDA Los Angeles campus features four main theatres. Our black box theatre and two laboratory theatres each seat 99 audience members and feature full theatrical lighting and sound packages, as well as climate control.

AMDA CAFÉ
The AMDA Café offers affordable, healthy and organic cuisine seven days a week for breakfast, lunch and dinner. The social hub of the campus, the Café has options for those ducking in for quick breaks between classes or settling in for long study sessions.

PERFORMING ARTS LIBRARY
The AMDA Los Angeles Performing Arts Library houses an expansive collection of scripts, scores and DVDs. The library offers listening and viewing stations, computers, Internet access and study space.

REHEARSAL SPACES
AMDA provides many places to train and rehearse outside of the classroom, including studios and private voice rooms. Various spaces are outfitted with audiovisual equipment, pianos, cabaret tables, blocks and other rehearsal equipment. Dance studios feature ballet barres and sprung floors.

FILM, VIDEO AND EDITING FACILITIES
AMDA provides professional-quality facilities devoted to filmmaking and video creation, including full shooting setups with lighting, cameras, playback and editing stations.

PIAZZA
The Piazza is an enclosed courtyard outside Yucca Tower. Enjoy the sunny Southern California weather while eating lunch, studying, rehearsing, meeting friends or participating in student activities.

HOUSING
The six AMDA Los Angeles residences offer students a variety of housing options on and near the main campus. Three on-campus facilities are situated around the Yucca Tower. Others are within walking distance, with shuttle service to facilities more than a block away. All residences offer 24-hour security, furnished rooms and Wi-Fi.

While there are a variety of alternate housing options in the areas surrounding campus, students who opt to live off-campus are responsible for their own housing. AMDA assumes no responsibility in assisting students with off-campus housing, nor does AMDA have control over third-party rent fees, which vary by location.
